TCx[®] M1

MOBILE POINT OF SALE

The Toshiba TCx[®] M1 is a point-of-sale handheld device that enables sales associates to take payments on the spot, making checkout lines, curbside pickup and remote areas of the store, even more convenient.

The TCx M1 offers retailers a complete mobile POS system capable of scanning and processing all forms of payment on a sleek, secure, & low-profile device.

KEY BENEFITS

Full payments (insert, tap, swipe) on a compact, handheld device for checkout anywhere

Faster checkout by offering customers a quick payment option to manage queues & reduce wait time

Fully integrated mobile payments Solution encompassing ELERA Pay & ELERA Associate Mobile software

Enhanced security utilizing only the most stringent PCI compliance standards

With the Toshiba TCx M1 Mobile POS system, retailers can offer shoppers a more personalized & convenient way to checkout with a complete mobile payments device that fits in the pocket of a store associate.

FRICTIONLESS EXPERIENCES

The TCx M1 helps retailers deliver a faster, more secure checkout experience while offering a total end-to-end payment transaction running on ELERA Associate Mobile or a retailer's POS software.

> Creates Frictionless Experiences

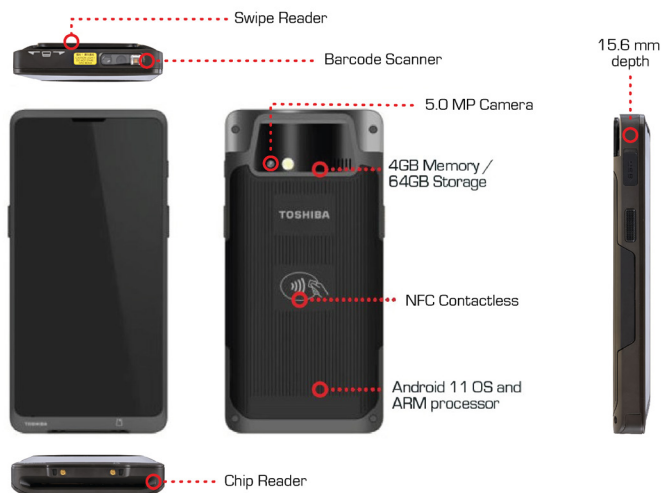

Provides more convenient customer experience through faster checkout time

> Extends Point-of-Sale

Expands the point-of-sale beyond traditional fixed lanes, offering shoppers more ways to pay

> Addresses Long Lines

Reduces store congestion and improves customer service during peak times

ELIMINATES LONG LINES
