MAINTENANCE SERVICES THE WAY YOU NEED THEM.

Complex retail environments can create difficult challenges, and we know retailers are looking for integrated service solutions to alleviate those obstacles. With the dedicated wall-to-wall support you receive through our Maintenance Services, you have the flexibility to select from multiple cost-effective service solutions and customizable service level agreements (SLAs) that are right for your business and fit the needs of your customers. And with our subject matter experts and an experienced single point of contact, you'll receive a simplified process to managing vendors and other business operations that will optimize resources, improve response times, and resolve technology issues so your business can continue running as smooth as possible.

With our onsite service solutions, you will have access to wall-to-wall service plans, fleet management and tracking, managed parts and stocking locations, predictive failure management, and an extensive global network of providers.

You will retain your sensitive customer information and the service technician leaves the replaced hard drive with you.

Standard and advanced depot exchange options offer cost-effective support solutions for non-complex, non-mission critical equipment repair or replacement.

Full program management supported by a single point of contact includes installations/moves/add/changes, service level and performance testing, root cause analysis, and management of vendors, billing, and inventory.

Our analysis and reporting provides retailers with customized, ad hoc analysis and reporting to help you help you better evaluate your operations.

Our installation and integration services equip you with a full suite of options for deployment that are supported by our Managed Services experts.

We provide proactive and preventative onsite visits prior to anticipated high-volume drive times to resolve potential in-store issues before they occur.

Address retail complexity.

Toshiba Maintenance Services manages the complexity of your business by providing wall-to-wall support in a multi-vendor environment (Toshiba and non-Toshiba equipment) while maintaining a single source of accountability. Our comprehensive services are expandable and flexible, and are available as pre-defined, multi-level Global Care Flex maintenance plans and as Global Care Flex Custom plans, giving you the freedom to choose from options tailored to your changing needs.

Smart-enabled fleet management.

Engaging the right partner to effectively manage parts stocking is vital to keeping your day-to-day operations running smoothly. With a high success rate on same-day, critical part fulfillment, our maintenance services offer a real-time proximity-dispatched fleet, supported by intelligent fleet management that enables superior responsiveness and minimizes downtime.

Integrated service solution.

Maintenance Services from Toshiba help you maximize system availability and uptime. Our integrated service solution supports those system availability needs by providing proactive component monitoring with real-time service call requisitions and tracking. Combined with data analytics, robust call center support, and the expertise of dedicated program managers, we can help predict potential failures before they occur.

Customers are always looking for flexible maintenance offerings that are tailored to their specific business needs. With worldwide coverage using best-in-class resources from highly skilled and trained systems technicians and business partners, our reliable, expert support services enable you to engage your customers, anywhere, anytime.
